History

Upper Crust was started by Lester D'souza in April 1989 to serve the people of Ahmedabad with the best bakery products and desserts.

Soon his wife, Monisha D'souza joined him and together they began a second branch of Upper Crust which served sizzlers and international cuisine along with the most delectable desserts and breads.

As Ahmedabadis fell in love with Upper Crust, it grew into 4 restaurants and 10 outlets all around Ahmedabad. With 3 decades of experience backing them, Upper Crust started their very own fine dine restaurant, Lithosphere.

Aditya D'souza who was always keen towards the culinary arts, manages each aspect of Lithosphere to the minutest detail. Aditya has studied Hospitality Management from Oxford Brookes and brings his experience and brilliance into the brand.

Natasha D'souza's love for desserts is clearly showcased at Lithosphere. She is a trained pastry chef from Le Cordon Blue, London and has delicately curated the dessert and pastry menu of Lithosphere.
